Announcements

STOP: In your mailbox you will find a Serve handout your name on the top, from 5th graders to our most senior members. Please place a checkmark by the tasks you would like to be part of, even if you are already participating in the activity. The last item on the list is one of the most important, making the commitment to be a prayer warrior for our church and its members. Completed forms can be placed in the baskets on the back tables. A note about Nursery: if you are over 60 or a student, and would like to be added to the nursery list, please write that in.

Please continue to be in prayer for Arlet Veurink. Arlet continues to deal with the physical challenges of limitations of mobility, breathing, food intake, and speech. She battles emotional and mental health challenges as well. We know God is working, has provided wonderful caregivers, and has given many other blessings. Arlet specifically asks for prayer concerning medication, energy, and exhaustion.

Sing by Ellie Holcomb

Who sang the first song? Who hummed the first tune?
Was it the wind blowing past the moon?
Were the stars making noise as they sparkled at night?
Did the sun sing a song as it colored the sky?
Oh, sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Did the waves make a song as they crashed to the shore?
Or was it the whales, or the lions' first roar?
Did the first flowers hum as they burst into bloom?
Or was the first song when the thunder went boom?
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Maybe elephants running loud over the ground
Or maybe the birds made the first singing sound
All these guesses we've made are quite good, but they're wrong
It was God our Maker who sang the first song
When God made the earth, He decided to sing
And He wrote His song into everything
God's song says, "You're good, you are wonderfully made
And I'll never stop loving you all of your days"
So sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Now we all know who sang the first song
God our Maker knew all along
That every heart and every thing
Was born with a song it was made to
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
Sing, sing, sing, Sing, sing, sing
When God made the earth, He decided to sing
And He wrote His song into everything
When God made the earth, He decided to sing
And He wrote His song into everything
