Announcements

This morning we have the privilege to witness the baptisms of Woodrow Murdock Dangel and Dorothy Jo Dangel, children of James and Amy Dangel. We thank God for his promises.

Kerry Vander Ley is scheduled for two treatments this Tuesday in Sioux Falls. He will have a chemo shot, which will be given every other week in Armour as maintenance against multi myeloma. He will also have an infusion to promote bone growth, which would be given every three months. May God provide increased health as well as strength for his back.

Roger Feenstra returned home from the hospital recently and will begin therapy this week. We pray for God's continued care.

Continue to remember in prayer:

- Those affected by the corona virus
- Alvie Timmermans: recover from COVID at Sanford
- Henry Van Zuidam: COPD
- Wayne Bok: COPD
- Kay Ann Hubers: blood clot in leg
- Larry Vander Ley: recuperate from shoulder surgery
- Rocky Niewenhuis: recuperate from foot surgery

Remember in prayer those who are homebound:

- Platte Nursing Home: Gene Van Zee
- Prairie View in Kimball: Koenraad Van Baalen
- Good Samaritan Care Center in Corsica: George Niewenhuis, John Nydam, Anna Mae Veurink
- Home: Roger Feenstra, Harriet Ver Steeg, Elsie Veurink, Marionette Zylstra
- Those adhering to COVID-19 safety guidelines

How do we deal with undependable life and people? This evening we continue our series in the book of James, looking at 1:1-8, particularly :6-11,13-18.

Next Sunday (May 2):

- Why is favoritism to be avoided? In the morning we will continue our series in James, looking at 2:1-13.
- Why is it a joy to be called Christ or Christian? In the evening we reflect on the name and title 'Jesus Christ' (Apostles Creed) as we look at Psalm 45, especially :6-7.

Please find in your mailboxes a newsletter from Ruth Veltkamp.

The National Day of Prayer this year is Thursday May 6. We will be meeting for prayer in the Fireside Room at 7:00 that evening. Please join us!

Happy Birthday and God's richest blessings to our senior members with birthdays this week: Harriet VerSteege (April 26), Harvey Muilenburg (April 26).

Backpack Food Drive is collecting non-perishable food for area children till April 25. A full list of suggested food items can be found in your mailbox. Boxes are located in the fellowship hall.

Dutch Oven Bakery punch cards are being sold to raise funds to attend a Reformed Youth Ministry (RYM) conference in Florida. Contact MaryLou Siems or Hayden Hubers (or Jackie or Rachelle) to purchase a card (15).

Today devotionals for May-June can be found on the back tables. Please help yourself to a copy.
